Lesson for August 2

THE EPISTLE OF JAMES

LESSON TEXT—Jas. 1:19-27.
GOLDEN TEXT—Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only.—Jas. 1:22.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Loving and obeying.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Be Ye Doers of the Word.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Doers of the Word.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Religion According to James.

The book of James was written to Jewish Christians scattered abroad who were passing through sore trials and persecutions. The pre-eminent aim was to show these humble believers how to live in such trying times. James recognized the difficulties of Christian living resulting from the attitude of the unbelieving Jews, and knew also the added difficulties of pride, jealousy and cowardly compromises which might spring up within. He showed that all these must be met with the realities which inhere in the religion of Jesus Christ.

I. Receiving the Engrafted Word (vv. 19-21).

1. What is the Engrafted Word?

"Engrafted" means implanted. In verse 18 he speaks of having been begotten by the Word. The figure is that of a planting of the seeds of truth. The Christian doctrines as contained in the Word, when quickened by the Holy Spirit result in regeneration. The divine method of regeneration is the preaching of God's word made living and active by the Holy Spirit.

2. How the Word Is Received (v. 19).

(1) "Be swift to hear." This means to be ready and eager to use every opportunity to get acquainted with God's word.

Obedience to this injunction will make one diligent in the reading of the Bible, and in attendance at the church services where the Word of God is being taught.

(2) "Slow to speak." From what follows we infer that this refers to religious controversies. It means that whether in the places of worship or in whatever circumstances, we should give respect and thoughtful attention to what our Christian brethren are saying.

(3) "Slow to wrath." Heated discussions sometimes develop in our conferences, even when we gather to consider the doctrines of God's word. Sometimes one may even fancy that anger is justifiable. In such cases we should remember the injunction, be slow to wrath.

3. The Reason for Receiving the Word (vv. 20-21).

"The wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God." Angry debating among Christians never helped to make known God's righteousness. Man's anger springs out of the fountain of his depravity.... Therefore its expression can only have a blighting effect upon those who listen, and even upon the speaker in its reaction upon him.

II. Coming into Self-Knowledge (vv. 22-25).

Receiving the engrafted Word through sufferings to hear, and obeying the holy precepts will result in that experimental knowledge of one's self which brings true blessings. By "doers of the Word," is meant those who make obedience their habitual attitude.

The truths of God's word will permeate their very life and be expressed in everything they do and say. Those who hear and do not obey are self-deceived. Those who go through the form of religion without coming under its power are likened to men who gaze into the mirror beholding the natural face, and then go away and forget how they look.

III. Pure Religion (vv. 26-27).

This means that those who have become doers of the Word will in their daily lives manifest the following traits:

1. Bridling the Tongue (v. 26).

This means that they will speak with discretion. God gave man two ears and but one tongue. The ears are exposed, but the tongue is walled in by the teeth. Just as the tongue reveals the condition of the physical system, so the use of the tongue reveals the religious condition.

2. Sympathizing With and Helping Those in Need (v. 27).

The widow and orphan are the symbols of helplessness and need. Those who have true piety will visit such and render the necessary aid.

3. Keeping Himself Unspotted From the World (v. 27).

The one who has the true life will separate himself from the world.

Giving Up Pleasure

When we have given up an insensate pleasure for character's sake, we are impressed with how much we have sacrificed. Jesus was impressed with how much a man had gained.—Hamilton Emerson Pontick.

Overcoming

We sometimes sing, "The Crowning Day Is Coming." That is true, but remember that coronation in Scripture is associated with overcoming.—Charles Inglis.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition, means that Catarrh bolders them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves the importance of keeping the system in healthy condition by the use of HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE. Sold by all druggists, price 75c. Manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

Lesson for September 6

PAUL WRITES TO THE PHILIPPIANS.

LESSON TEXT—Phil. 3:7-16; 4:8.
GOLDEN TEXT—"I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."—Phil. 4:13.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul and His Friends.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul Pressing Toward the Goal.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Choosing the Best Things.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Christian's Goal.

The contents of the epistle may be summarized as follows:

1. Salutation (1:1-2).
2. Thanksgiving and prayer in which he shows his loving interest in them (1:3-11).
3. Triumph of the gospel in spite of opposition (1:12-26).
4. Duties enjoined (1:27-2:18).
5. Paul's promises to send Timothy and Epaphroditus (2:19-30).
6. Exhortations and warnings (3:1-4:1).
7. Renewed appeal for unity (4:2-9).
8. Personal matters (4:10-23).

The essential message of Philippians is a revelation of the mind which should dominate the Christian.

I. All Things Loss for Christ (3:7-9).

The occasion for this remarkable declaration was the claim of the Judaizing teachers for legal righteousness. In chapter 3:4-6 he enumerates the grounds upon which he had a right to base his claims for legal righteousness.

1. "Circumcised the eighth day," in keeping with the demands of the law.
2. Of the stock of Israel," related by blood and birth.
3. "Tribe of Benjamin," from which the first king was chosen, and which always remained loyal to the nation.
4. "An Hebrew of the Hebrews," in contrast with some of mixed parentage.
5. "Touching the law, a Pharisee," the most zealous for the ritual of Judaism.
6. "Concerning zeal, persecuting the church." A passionate effort to crush the church.
7. "Touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless," as to the condition of its demands by the law.

All of these, valuable in themselves when placed alongside of the excellency of the knowledge of Christ were abandoned for a better thing. The vision of Christ gave him the true perspective of values. In this light he saw the utter worthlessness of these things. After some thirty years of such trials and sufferings, perhaps no other human being ever knew, he has no regrets, and still counts them as refuse in comparison with what he had gained in Christ.

II. Paul's Present Desire (vv. 10-11).

1. "That I May Know Him."

Personal acquaintance with the Lord was his supreme desire. To know the saving power of Christ is good but to know Christ is infinitely better.

2. "The Power of His Resurrection."

This is an advance thought over personal acquaintance. It is the expression of the life of Christ through the apostle. It is the power you gain to overcome the matters over sin and self.

3. "Fellowship of His Sufferings."

Not only identified with Christ in His sufferings by imputation, but that he might fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ (Col. 1:24).

4. "Attain Unto the Resurrection of the Dead" (v. 11).

This will be accomplished when the Lord comes (1 Thess. 4:15-17).

III. Pressing Toward the Goal (vv. 12-16)

Paul clearly grasped the meaning of his perfection in Christ, yet he was keenly conscious of his personal limitations. Herein is expressed the true law of progress in the spiritual life.

1. Conscious of Limitations (v. 12).

The first step towards progress is to be profoundly dissatisfied with personal attainments. No intellectual advancement is ever made by those who think they have enough, who are satisfied with what they have.

2. Conscious of a Transcendent Goal (v. 13).

The Christian life is an upward calling.

3. A Resolute Determination to Reach the Goal (v. 14).

He declares, "This one thing I do."

IV. The Right Occupation of the Mind (ch. 4:1-8).

The ideal controls the man. "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he." When once the mind is guarded and controlled by the peace of God, it will dwell upon spiritual things.

Faith

"Every man may lose the sunshine for a time because of the clouds but happy is he if he still retains his faith."

The Good Shepherd

A good shepherd always looks after his sitting sheep.—Western Christian Advocate

"The religion of Jesus Christ alone teaches mercy."

VERA

A most copious rain is falling at this writing, which is making the hearts of many farmers glad.

Some of our most progressive farmers have started cutting tobacco.

The youngsters have a few more days of grace before setting down to work on their studies. Go to it youngsters, while the going is good!

Melvin Childers, who spent his vacation with relatives and friends here, returned to his duties at Roanoke Sunday.

Ben Megginson, who went with a party of friends to visit the Thomas F. Ryan estate, Sunday, met with an accident on his way back. When turning a curve between Gladstone and Caskie, he encountered a car coming from the opposite direction and on the wrong side of the road, consequently "something had to bust," Mr. Megginson's car, minus a wheel and with a busted radius rod, is in the garage for repairs. Fortunately no one was hurt.

Miss "Buck" Coleman, and children, of Richmond are visiting relatives here.

Milton Reynolds and wife, Mrs Anna Robertson, Miss Lorene and Percy Reynolds motored to Roanoke Friday to see Mrs. Reynold's brother, Mr. Turner who is sick.

Abbitt Wooldridge, wife and son Abbitt, Jr., of Lynchburg, were the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Carnefix, Sunday.

Quite a party from this section motored to the Thomas F. Ryan estate in Nelson county, Sunday. They carried their dinners and made a regular gala day of it.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Walker Carnefix is very much improved in health.

John D. Childers, wife and son Melvin, motored to Burlington, N. C., to visit Mr. Childers' nephew, Len Childers, who is in a critical condition at the Burlington Hospital.

"Matt" Ferguson, wife and sister, Mrs. LeFew, of Lynchburg, came down to visit their mother, Mrs. Bryant Ferguson who remains quite ill.

Mrs. H. W. Kinney received a message last week announcing the death of her sister, Miss Viva Stevens, of La Junta, Colorado. Miss Stevens formerly lived in Virginia, and had many friends here who will regret to hear of her demise.

"Uncle" Tom Irvine, a worthy colored man of this section, died after a lingering illness. A large concourse of friends, both white and black, followed him to his last resting place.

"I know not the way thats before me,
No more
The joy or the griefs it may bring;
What clouds are overhanging the future
What flowers by the wayside may spring.
But there's One who will journey beside me,
Nor in weal, nor in woe will forsake;
And this is my solace and comfort,
He knoweth the way that I take."

EVERGREEN

The revival services at the BaptistChurch closed Saturday night, having had a special meeting. Rev. Thomas, evangelist assisted the pastor Rev. Burnette. The church was crowded every night, and twenty-four were added to the church, thirteen by baptism, the others by letter, also one addition to Methodist church.

The ladies of the Baptist church will give a lawn party on Mrs. Inge's lawn, Saturday Sept. 6th, beginning at 5 p. m. Cream, sandwiches, etc., will be served.

Lloyd Inge, from Pamplin, has moved here. We are glad to welcome them among us.

C. D. Nichols and wife, Herbert Taylor, wife and little daughter, Courtney, from Lynchburg, were guests at the home of J. R. Lee, Sunday.

The young people of this place enjoyed a watermelon feast Sunday afternoon, given by John and Tip Paulett.

Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Chocklett from Dillwyn, were visitors at their daughter's, Mrs. Z. E Cheatham last week.

Miss Florence Marks, from Oakville, is visiting relatives here.

PAMPLIN

L. W. Hoffman and wife, of Richmond, were the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Thornton this week. They will visit Roanoke while on their vacation.

Miss Merle Davis is spending some time with friends and relatives in Amherrin.

Miss Elane Carwile went to Lynchburg Saturday, where she will enter the Commercial Business College as a student.

Mr. L. R. Carwile has had as her recent guest Mrs. Crabtree from Lynchburg.

Miss Mary West Terry left Sunday for Durham N. C. She will also visit Chapel Hill before her return home.

Miss Ellen Wilson spent last week with Misses Mandane and Willie Anderson of Appomattox.

There will be a Group Meeting at Haywood Sunday afternoon at 2:30. A large attendance of all the churches in Group No. 8 is desired. Mrs. T. N. Ranson is leader of the Group.

Newt Jay, wife and little son Paul, were the guests of Mrs. Lou Foster on Sunday.

Curtis Harvey and wife had as their guests on Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Wingfield and Miss Mary Daniel of Phenix.

The musicale given by the Lawrence Bros. of Richmond and John Cunningham, of Pamplin, was quite a success.

Miss Josie Jones who has been spending some weeks with Mrs. Edward Booker, will return to her home at Chatham, Tuesday.

Mrs. Alice Connely and Miss Mattie Thornton were called to the bed side of Mr. G. T. Watkins who is critically ill in Richmond. He underwent a very serious operation.

FOREST VIEW

Mrs. Annie Odor spent several days last week with Mrs. Ryland Martin at her father's J. W. Davis, near Spring Mill.

Mrs. Frank Wooldridge and Mrs. J. A. Martin returned last week from a trip to Washington, D. C. They had a delightful trip.

We are sorry Mrs. S. J. Lee is no better at this writing, but not so well.

Mrs. T. H. Ford has returned home after spending some time in Lynchburg. She was accompanied by her daughter Mrs. L. Laughlin, who underwent an operation a few weeks ago for appendicitis,' She is feeling fine.

Mr. Overbey returned home last week from Lynchburg where he has been working.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Martin and children, of Richmond, visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Martin last week.

We were sorry indeed to learn of the sad death of Mrs. Floyd Trent which took place in Memorial Hospital, Lynchburg, Saturday A. M. She was brought home and laid to rest in the family burying ground, near Wesley Chapel church, in the presence of a large concourse of friends. She leaves a husband and three small children of this county, three brothers, Willie T., Sam and Curtis Martin, of Roanoke and an uncle, Joel Wooldridge who lived with her to mourn their loss. She will be greatly missed and our sympathy goes out to the bereaved family in this their sad hour of trouble. The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away.

Men and Money Make this Bank Secure.

THERE are twc ways of measuring the strength and standing of a bank. In the first place money resources—capital and surplus—give it financial strength.

In the second place—and perhaps even more important—are men, the officers and directors. They give the bank character, determine and execute its policies.

This is a strong bank, a helpful bank because it has ample resources, and a personnel of proven character and ability.
